Why Cohesity + Presidio?
The Winning Combination in Your Data Management Technology Equation

With Presidio, the hands-on experts at connecting IT of Today and IT of Tomorrow, and Cohesity's innovative technologies with next-gen data management — you can efficiently protect, secure and manage your data your way.

Expert-level advice for your environment

Presidio and Cohesity work together as one. With Presidio's 1,500+ engineers and 500+ field sellers, you can expect smart, forward-looking advice about how Cohesity solutions can work in your environment.

Your business, your way

With Cohesity's first-of-its kind DMaaS on AWS, you can choose whether to manage your data on-premise, as-a-service or both. Presido's expert engineers and solution sales team designs and manages IT solutions and services for your exact needs and budget. It's your way, every day.

Driving business transformation

Presidio and Cohesity drive transformation by helping you modernize the foundation (infrastructure), re-define work (when, where and how it's done), transform to digital and secure everything.
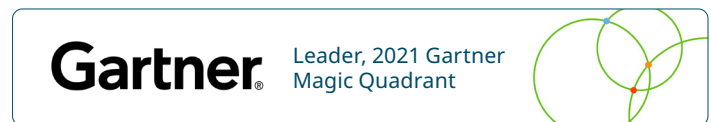

Backed by the brand of your choice

Both Presidio and Cohesity partner with industry giants like Cisco and Pure Storage — as well as with top cloud service providers like AWS — so you can choose the platform that best meets your needs.

Take ransomware protection to the next level with the Cohesity-Cisco SecureX integrated solution.
