

PRESIDIO HONORED AS RECIPIENT OF 2017
INTEL® PARTNER OF THE YEAR AWARD – CLOUD SOLUTIONS

New York, NY – June 8, 2017 – Presidio, Inc. (NASDAQ:PSDO), a leading North American IT solutions provider, today announced it was named Intel® Partner of the Year – Cloud Solutions.

The 2017 Intel® Partner of the Year – Cloud Solutions award recognizes Presidio as a leader among solutions providers in helping customers to define their cloud strategy, and architect, consume and run their optimal private, hybrid and multi cloud infrastructures.

“Presidio helps customers digitally transform their businesses with key strategic partners,” said Steve Hanney, Chief Cloud Officer at Presidio. “Together with Intel we are working to accelerate innovative features and capabilities for our customers in enterprise clouds and software-defined infrastructure – helping them address the scalability, automation and security of cloud built for their future needs. This award is based on Presidio’s broad cloud consulting, brokerage and managed services solutions. It is a testament to our longstanding partnership with Intel and their best-of-breed portfolio.”

The award was presented to Presidio during the Intel Solutions Summit (ISS) at the Gaylord Texan Resort Hotel & Convention Center in Grapevine, Texas, on May 23, 2017. ISS is Intel's largest and most prestigious event of the year exclusively reserved for Platinum members of the Intel Technology Provider program in North and South America.

Presidio helps customers accelerate and simplify cloud adoption across the entire IT lifecycle using private, hybrid and multi cloud technology. By scaling efficiently and provisioning resources based on their changing application demands, security and governance profiles, organizations can introduce new products and services at unprecedented speed and scale. Presidio solutions include data center modernization, orchestration and automation, IT transformation, DevOps and software development delivered through a full lifecycle of cloud services from consulting, design, migration, integration, managed services to operational support. In addition, we offer Presidio Cloud Concierge, a cloud brokerage platform that provisions resources across private on-premise data centers and public cloud environments in an “as a service” model.
